Appendix “A”

The University and YUSA have agreed that effective February 3rd 2025, where a claim for medical marijuana is made through the adjudication/claims process for medical marijuana as set out in the SunLife Group Benefits Booklet for employees in the YUSA Bargaining Unit ("Benefits Booklet"), which includes a Prior Approval form, that:.

If Sun Life’s adjudication/claims approval process as stated in the Benefits Booklet results in the denial of a claim where the claimant provides Sun Life with:

(a) a completed Health Canada Medical Document Authorizing the Use of Cannabis for Medical Purposes under the Access to Cannabis For Medical Purposes Regulations; and

(b) a prescription by a medical doctor or nurse practitioner supporting cannabis as medically necessary; and

(c) A receipt from a Health Canada authorized licensed producer including the following information: patient name, name of the dispensary, indication that the receipt has been paid in full;

then Sun Life is to approve the claim and reimburse the claimant in respect of their claim up to a maximum of $1,500 per year.
